Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I urge you to find the proposed settlement between the DOJ and Microsoft inadequate. Please consider the many rational and fair alternatives so articulately expressed at <http://www.kegel.com/remedy/> and the links within. I find the suggestions revolving around the theme of open standards and interfaces to be particularly sensible. A company with Microsoft's size, market penetration, and anti-competitive aggression should be required to develop product and technologies in a way that gives the world a fighting chance at choice.
